

XM radio offers great programming for people who want to pay for their service. If people want to pay to receive instant traffic and weather reports from XM radio then they should be allowed too. It is like getting news from CNN when you want it, or movies from HBO. Let the technology work to benefit everyone who wants to pay for it.
It is that simple..